"What is your idea of bliss? It is when you are in the company of children who are full of confidence, brimming with passion. Who do not seek satisfaction in what life serves but have the courage to attain their dreams. Who are ready to embrace sweat with their smiles. This is what I witnessed during my visit to Swatantra Talim. All praise and wishes for their pillars Ridhi and Rahul who are giving flight to their dreams and what a sight to see them fly!"

Testimonials

"Rumi said that when you doing something from your heart, a river flows, a joy. Exactly 2 months ago when we visited Swatantra Talim in Lucknow, it seemed like magic flowed. If I seek to bring in some metaphor to what I felt Swatantra Talim was, it could be like a lotus growing in toughest of circumstances. Or it could be like a pearl that is formed on a leaf freshly wet by early morning showers. The shine in it added much of a spark in my eye, spark of inspiration"
